

CAPURSO VALPOLICELLA SUPERIORE 2016

It's nice to see a Valpo with a bit of age, yet looking so youthful in the glass. In this case, the complex aromas of ripe, savory red fruit are still fresh, the medium to full body still vibrant and the finish shows good length and control. The tannins are still flexing a little muscle. No signs of aging here. Just mellowing, and will continue to do so for a while. Drink or hold.
